

HOW MANY PARTICIPANTS?
WHAT KIND OF STRUCTURE?
TELL ME MORE....

We haven't yet set a limitation on enrollment for this program. While I have a feeling this program will grow in popularity and demand, I can tell you that we probably won't be doing much to market this initial program, (due to other demands) so I'm not expecting huge numbers. I'm guessing this February 2012 program will be the most intimate experience.

Each call will be a full extravaganza!

There will always be a guided group meditation to bring our energies together and unlock our amazing resources. In the past, students have felt the meditation alone was worth the price of admission!

I will always offer some new teaching/ tools/techniques and focus on the call, to help inspire and structure our group adventure. Or speak to questions or dynamics I've seen the week before. There will also be group sharing of "wins" and what's working.

And the rest of the call, I will offer individual laser-coaching to as many students as I can. Since this is a group experience, I can't interact with everyone personally. But here's how I'm aiming to make sure that each individual gets the attention and love they need. I will get to as many different people on the call as I can--each week. That means I'll be fairly mindful of who speaks each week, trying to make sure that as many individuals as possible have a chance. Also, I will be available to answer personal questions by email, though I will ask that they are on the message board, so that the answers benefit everyone involved. In the past, when I've offered something similar to this, many students found that the other participants had similar questions...so that ALL the questions that got asked, were sort of "their" questions. Also the group dynamic was amazing, students supporting each other, and a weekly group energy that infused everything.

I'd love to have you join us if this experience is right for you! I'd love to have you unlock your greatest resources and have the weekly love, guidance, strength and support to do it. Whether you have no idea what your passion is...or if you know exactly what it is...this group/adventure will help you trust your clarity and desires, feed your joy more, discover and express your gifts and live the life you were meant to live.

With my love and blessings,
Tama
